Claim rejections-35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 15-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claims 15-16 are not limited to tangible embodiments. In view of applicant's disclosure, specification page 10, lines 17-21, the medium is not limited to tangible embodiments, instead being defined as including both tangible embodiments (e.g., CD-ROM drive, hard disk drive or diskette) and intangible embodiments (e.g., network circuit, a transitory state medium such as through a network link and/or a wireless network). As such, the claim is not limited to statutory subject matter and is therefore non-statutory.

In claims 15-16, the feature "a computer-readable medium" is amended to "a computer-readable storage medium" in order to avoid a possibility of non-statutory subject matter.

3. Claims 9-12, 19-20 are allowed.
